The Berkeley County Library was started in June 1936 in a room over a store in Moncks Corner. In 1938 the committee built a library with the help of P.W.A. The library committee is most active and has worked hard to improve the library. They serve the whole county and are working toward joining Dorchester and Colleton to form a regional library. The circulation for 1939 was 6,372. The bookstock is 2,262 and there are 659 registered borrowers.
