Allendale has two small libraries. Each of these has an appropriation of $75.00 a year. One is in Fairfax and one in Allendale. The Fairfax library is housed in a building willed for library use and is supported by rentals from other rooms.

In Allendale Mrs. Mary Visser is employed by the county as librarian. Through W.P.A. cooperation the library hours have been extended.

Service in both these libraries is free to the whole county. Their combined bookstock is 4,795. They have 710 borrowers and the circulation for 1939 was 6,547.
