In 1936 the Conway Citizens' Committee and the W.P.A. cooperated to give impetus to the county library movement in Horry County. An interested couple gave their library to be used as a nucleus for the demonstration. The county superintendent of education enlisted the aid of each school district. The Junior Charity League contributed $200 the first year and $100 for each of three succeeding years. The Conway Town Committee raised $500. The town council of Conway recently pledged $25 a month.

The W.P.A. bookmobile which was put into operation in May 1937 and the Conway Public Library which was opened March 4, 1938 cooperate by exchanging deposits of books.
