In 1936 the Oconee County Delegation appropriated $1,100 which was applied to a bookmobile and books. The town of Seneca rented a house for the central depository which has been replaced by a renovated building rented by the Board of Education. W.P.A. is responsible for all personnel and technical supervision.

The W.P.A. and the DAR school have made loans to supplement the bookstock. Other interested agencies have contributed to the book fund.
