Application for a Graduate Assistantship

All graduate assistantships positions are located in Columbia, South Carolina. Candidates must be admitted to the MLIS program to be eligible for consideration. The deadlines coincide with the MLIS application deadlines: November 15 for Spring term and January 15 for Summer and Fall terms. It is important to submit your application even if you have not received an admission decision.

Please submit your application and a current résumé via e-mail, postal service, fax, or hand-deliver to the Student Services Office.
